A LITTLE SPORTING GOSSIP

By Hal Sheridan

(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, April 12.—Well, fans, what do you think of 'em, the Feds? After reading the accounts in the Sunday papers yesterday of the Feds' first games and the inaugural dope, I must say that they look pretty good to me. There can be no dispute that the Feds are near-big league class if not really "arrived."

There is also no question but what they are capable of putting up a much improved game over last year. Every team, practically, shows a new bunch of stars, present, potential and a few time-dimmed. But today the race of the Feds looks like it would be even more closely contested and, on the race of first gate receipts, will apparently reap financial success larger than 1914.

On first performance form the Cardinals and the Newarks seem to be the contenders, but it's a long road for the Grand Old Dope to travel before the season ends.

A rumor was wafted up here from Washington today that "King" Walter Johnson may be the bone (not ivory) of a legal scrap between the Americans and Feds as a thrilling by-play of the American season's opening. An injunction suit against the P. P. (Peerless Pitcher) is reported to be up the Feds' sleeve, to spring upon the opening day. This rumor has been constantly revived since Walter stopped back to organized baseball—that before he could fling a ball in the opening game at the capital, an injunction writ would be served upon him to test his ownership because of his signing a contract to play with the Kawfers.

How Johnson will perform this year is a development anxiously waited by thousands of fans—and Walter himself, I imagine. He had an off year last year, but finished with a record that would have been good enough to garner a raise in salary for most pitchers. Maybe Walter went into the clouds when he launched upon a matrimonial career last year. Here's hoping he's the same or a better "smokeball" this year.

NEW YORK, April 12.—"Gopher ticket," is the fans' question today, straining at the tape for the big blow off of the 1915 baseball season tomorrow of organized baseball. The National and American Leagues' premier is scheduled tomorrow and in metropolitan of East and West the rush for the coveted pasteboards is on today.

In the American League, at Philadelphia, Washington, St. Louis and Detroit, the curtain raisers will be held. To avoid conflicts under the "gentlemen's agreement" against competition, the National League will open at Boston, New York, Cincinnati and Chicago.

For one day at least the Feds will step into the baseball background while their rivals hold the center of the stage for their 1915 premier.

From all parts of the big leagues' circuit today come pennant prognostications of the managers and announcements of opening batteries. Anyway, today rings down the curtain on the "Stove League."

Recently a Maxwell "25" made a climb of 3,200 feet in two miles on the Toll House Grade, near Fresno, in the course of a hundred mile trip, using only 1 pint of oil, 1 gallon of water, and averaged 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline. It was loaded to full capacity, 4 passengers and driver, besides extra gas, oil and tires. This is a stunt that no other car has ever done before. Day's Doings at the Big Store

Fourth and Klamath

Today there was a man come around the corner and climbed into the Big Store. He asked what saloon this was, and wanted something to drink. We told him Mr. Riley had a nice place around up the street, and if he would go up there he could get anything he wanted.

He had just gone when a lady came in to see about a dining table. We showed her one for $12, a good hardwood table for $12, fine solid oak, turned finish, six foot table for $37.50, a good oak, wax finish, six foot table for $20, and several other pieces at about the same prices. He selected a nice six-foot table at $20 and a set of chairs to match at $9.90, and we delivered them for her.

Then a man came in and put some on a bill he has owed us a long time, and said he would pay the rest as soon as the tide of prosperity gets here. We got used to waiting. Some times we wait till we are hungry.
